Movies with a Mission 2011 Season Atlanta, Georgia, Chicago, Illinois and Alexandria, Virginia

Submission Information & Procedure:

About MWM:

In 2004 SankofaSpirit created its film series, Movies with a Mission to counter the myths and negative images of people of African descent so often promoted by Hollywood. Movies with a Mission are free monthly films from and about Africa and the African Diaspora that seek to inform and inspire dialogue.

The 2011 season will take place in Atlanta, Georgia at Atlanta-Fulton Central Library Auditorium, Chicago, Illinois at the Dusable Museum, and Alexandria, Virginia at the Alexandria Black History Museum on a monthly basis.

Eligibility:

Movies with a Mission are currently accepting applications for films made by and/or about people of African descent. Films should depict positive and inspiring images and can be of any genre. MWM accept features and shorts; narratives and documentaries.
